Membership of a CAMS-affiliated enthusiast club does not enable the member to hold a competition licence. If a competition licence is required, membership of a CAMS-affiliated car club which is able to conduct competitions is necessary.

An applicant who wishes to compete in more than one discipline (e.g. circuit and rally) must have each discipline endorsed on their licence.

All licence enquiries should be addressed to the CAMS Member Services department by:

Telephone: CAMS Hotline 1300 883 959

E-mail: memberservices@cams.com.au

All licence applications to be posted to:

 - (ii) IndyCar vehicle in Group O, P, Q, R; and

(iii) Group F5000.

NOTE: A Driver holding an International licence must also have a HPL Endorsement to compete in any of the above vehicles in a CAMS circuit race competition up to National Championship.

(b) The following criteria must be met to be granted a HPL Endorsement:

(i) Hold a minimum of a current National Circuit (NC) Licence.

(ii) Successfully complete an Observed Licence Test (OLT) to confirm the necessary skills by either:

(A) OLT prior to an event:

Undertake an OLT in the relevant vehicle, under observation by a CAMS AHMSC approved assessor. The cost of any OLT shall be borne by the applicant.

(B) OLT at an Event:

Observation during practice at an event by a CAMS AHMSC approved assessor, which may be a Steward or Clerk of the Course at the event, to grant approval to compete at that event. Continued observation during the event shall determine the final recommendation for a HPL Endorsement.

NOTE: During an event assessment the assessor has the right to stop further participation of a driver, should that driver who is under observation not continue to demonstrate the necessary skills to be provided with the HPL Endorsement.

(iii) Final approval by the CAMS HPL Endorsement Evaluation Panel.

NOTE:

(a) A driver holding a CAMS Superlicence is exempt from the OLT requirements.

(b) The Stewards may suspend a HPL Endorsement at an event, should it be identified that a driver is not demonstrating the necessary skills to maintain the HPL Endorsement. In such a case the HPL Endorsement issued for that Driver shall be reviewed after the event by the CAMS HPL Endorsement Evaluation Panel.

(c) The CAMS CEO has the authority to suspend a licence and/or endorsement at any time in accordance with NCR 193.
